FORMATION IN A MINUTE...

Why So Many Candles? (Part 2)

The Paschal Candle

The unique Easter Candle is easy to recognize because of its size: it is several feet tall and decorated with colorful designs. It is also imprinted with the year and a cross with five cloves.

In the Gospel of Luke, Jesus tells us to have our lamps lit, and to "be like men who are waiting for their master to come home from the marriage feast, so that they may open to him at once when he comes and knocks". (Luke 12:35-37)

This idea served as one of the inspirations for the Easter Candle. On Holy Saturday we wait with expectation for the rising of Christ from the darkness of the tomb to the light of the resurrection.

During the Easter Vigil Mass, the congregation lights their small candles from the Paschal Candle as a reminder to share and reflect the light of Christ in their own lives. In another part of the vigil Mass, the new Paschal Candle is used to bless the water of the baptismal font.

The priest plunges the candle into the water three times, while exclaiming, "May the power of the Holy Spirit come down into the fullness of this font." This same Paschal Candle is then lit during baptisms throughout the year as a reminder that the Sacrament of Baptism, where we first receive the Holy Spirit, is possible because of Christ's sacrifice on the cross and his resurrection. He brings the light of life and grace into the darkness of sin and death.

When a baptism occurs during the Easter Vigil, the celebrant proclaims to the newly baptized: "You have been enlightened by Christ. Walk always as children of the light and keep the flame of faith alive in your hearts. When the Lord comes, may you go out to meet him with all the saints in the heavenly kingdom."

The imagery of the candle and its light beautifully shows how a new soul – a new apostle of light – joins God's family.

Advent Candles

Christians adapted ancient German and Scandinavian traditions using wreaths with candles in the wintertime to create the Advent Wreath tradition that we practice today.

Each of the four Advent candles represents one thousand years in salvation history, from the time of Adam and Eve to the birth of Christ. As the four weeks of Advent progress, we light another candle each Sunday to represent our proximity to the glorious feast of the birth of the Light of the World, Jesus Christ.

Candles in Celebrations, Blessings, and Dedications

Candles play a part in the blessings of ashes and palms, the dedication of churches and cemeteries, and the Mass of a newly ordained priest. Candles are also present at every sacrament except that of Penance. In all of these cases the candles represent the enlightened and sacred character which is brought to all these items, places, and events by Jesus Christ, the True Light.
