FORMATION IN A MINUTE...

The Holy Season of Lent

"Come and listen to my story," says Purple, "a tale of pain and feeling abandoned by God with an amazing and surprising ending. The story of the resurrection of our Savior and King." Now that the church has entered the Lenten season, the liturgical color changes from green to purple. Purple symbolizes both the pain and suffering leading up to the crucifixion of Jesus, as well as the suffering of humanity and the world under sin. But since purple is also the color of royalty, it reminds us of Jesus' resurrection and hope of newness that will be celebrated on Easter Sunday. Jesus is our King, our royal King.

Please join us in praying for our catechumens, Jennifer and Brent, as they celebrate the Rite of Election today at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception.

The Rite of Election is the ritual that marks their entry into the final phase of their preparation to receive the sacraments of initiation at the Easter Vigil. Following the Rite of Election, they are called "the elect," since they have been elected by the Church (in the person of the bishop) to become members.

The Rite of Election is celebrated on the first Sunday of Lent. Then, throughout the remainder of Lent – which focuses on the need for ongoing conversion – the elect join spiritually with Catholics throughout the world in seeking to deepen their faith, grow in holiness, and strengthen their relationships with God and neighbor.

February 26, 2023: First Sunday of Lent (MT 4: 1-11)

In today's gospel Jesus cautions it is not enough to provide food for our children; "one does not live on bread alone." Let Lent 2023 be a time when you are "led by the Spirit" to explore new ways to be a moral guide to your children.

Not Now, I'm Busy: Hanging onto What Matters Most—A Women's Retreat

Chances are, you heard the phrase, "not now, I'm busy" and if you're like most, you've used that phrase once or twice in your life. We've heard the tale of the two sisters, Martha and Mary featured in Luke's gospel several times before. It's a tug-o-war of sorts between what each sister views as priority at that moment. How can we apply the wisdom from this encounter with Jesus to our lives today? After all, we are all faced with countless distractions, invitations and opportunities to serve, right? We hope that you will join us for an overnight women's retreat here at The Good News Center facilitated by Meg Castellini who has been journeying with groups throughout the Diocese of Syracuse for the last 16 years. Our weekend begins on Friday, March 24th at 5PM and ends on Saturday, March 25th at 3PM followed by confession and Mass. Private room cost is $125, semi-private is $100 and commuter is $75. Price includes all meals and accommodations. Paid registration is due by March 17th.

Call The Good News Center at 315-735-6210.
