FORMATION IN A MINUTE...

Saint John XXIII – October 11

Pope John XXIII, who was pope for only a short time (1959 to 1963), had an amazing impact on the church and the entire world. When John XXIII was elected pope, the world was a very different place than it had been even 200 years before. In the past, the church had a lot of power in the world. That wasn't the case anymore. Nations had much more power than the church and were sometimes using that power to hurt people. John believed that the church needed to speak with a stronger voice so that it could protect all people from war, violence, and poverty.

John XXIII had a vision and hope. He made a decision based on that hope and based on the virtue of prudence, a virtue that he spoke of a great deal. John—whom today we call Saint John XXIII—believed that Jesus' love was for everybody in the world.

He wanted the church to be a strong voice proclaiming that love in modern times to modern people. He looked to the past, present, and future in making his decision to lead the church in that direction. When we make prudent decisions, that's exactly what we have to do, too: We should think about the past, understand how our choice will affect us in the future, and listen to God's voice in our hearts in the present.

Popes and regular folks—we're all called to be prudent. We're all called to be wise!
