FORMATION IN A MINUTE...

As Catholics, we begin November by remembering those who have died. We call the first two days of November All Saints Day and All Souls Day.

We all look forward to exciting times of the year: birthdays, Thanksgiving, Christmas, Easter. When we have the promise of something good in the future, it makes us excited right now. Jesus teaches that we have the promise of eternal life if we follow his teaching and example. This is something to get excited about right now.

Recall the story of Jesus raising Lazarus from the dead. It is a story about the promise of eternal life. Jesus is the resurrection and the life for all of us. We pray for those who have died because we have hope that they will live with God forever and that we will be reunited with them.

On All Saints Day and All Souls Day we remember that we are members of the People of God. United with God, we are also united with all Christians who have come before us in the Communion of Saints.

The Communion of Saints refers to members of the Church who have been baptized into Christ. The term also refers to those who have died. Our belief in the Communion of Saints proclaims our belief that death does not separate us from those who died.

We are all called to be saints. We are all called to live each day as Jesus did. We are also called to recognize the holiness in others.

A PRAYER FOR UKRAINE

Loving God,
We pray for the people of Ukraine,
for all those suffering or afraid,
that you will be close to them and protect them.
We pray for world leaders,
for compassion, strength and wisdom to guide their choices.
We pray for the world that in this moment of crisis, we may reach out in solidarity to our brothers and sisters in need.
May we walk in your ways
so that peace and justice become a reality for the people of Ukraine and for all the world. Amen.

OCTOBER INTENTION

For the Synod

We pray for the Church, that she may adopt listening and dialogue as a lifestyle at every level, and allow herself to be guided by the Holy Spirit towards the peripheries of the world.

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE

October 29, 2023: Thirtieth Sunday
(MT 22:34-40)

In today's gospel the Pharisee was talking about commandments (Something we are forced to obey by external pressure) and Jesus was talking about love (an internal exhortation to give our heart, soul and mind to another). One demands allegiance, the other requires personal commitment. In our families we daily lay down our lives for each other not because we "gotta" but because love compels us.

November 1, 2023: All Saints
(MT 5:1-12)

Anyone can be a "saint" in front of strangers but the daily acts of patience, acceptance, forgiveness, listening, and dying to oneself within the family are religious acts. Family life is the turf of sanctity.

rites of Reader and Acolyte to be CONFERRED

5:10 pm Sunday November 5, 2023
at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, Syracuse
with Bishop Douglas Lucia presiding.
